

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

A. In the Office Action dated March 24, 2005, Examiner mentioned in the "Allowable Subject Matter" that claims 11, 22, and 24-27 are allowed. Please issue a Notice of Allowance for these six claims in this application.

B. A continuation application is being filed concurrently with the "AMENDMENT AND RESPONSE", in the continuation application, claims 1-6 correspond to claims listed hereinbelow. The designation numerals of claims hereinbelow are the same as those numerals used in the parent application 10/645,634 to facilitate the understanding of the amendments made.

C. Listing of claims:

Claim 1 A decorative display comprising:

- a) a support base having at least one support extending therefrom;
- b) a decorative base member separate from the support base and located on the support base;
- c) a transparent housing located in the decorative base member and having a bottom portion defining a bottom portion opening;
- d) a stopper member fitted with the bottom portion of the transparent housing so as to cover the bottom portion opening;

- e) at least one decoration;
- f) a power source; and
- g) a mechanism for transmitting the power output of the power source to the decoration for imparting a desired movement thereto;

characterized in that a lid is provided above the stopper; and characterized in that the mechanism comprises at least a first gear operatively connected to the power source and located above the lid; a second gear engageable with the first gear and fastened with a wheel having an elongate drive stub which is eccentrically fixed on the wheel.

Claim 2 A decorative display comprising:

- a) a support base having at least one support extending therefrom;

- b) a decorative base member separate from the support base and located on the support base;

- c) a transparent housing located in the decorative base member and having a bottom portion defining a bottom portion opening;

- d) a stopper member fitted with the bottom portion of the transparent housing so as to cover the bottom portion opening;

- e) at least one decoration;

- f) a power source; and

- g) a mechanism for transmitting the power output of the power source to the decoration for imparting a desired movement

thereto;

characterized in that a lid is provided above the stopper; and characterized in that the mechanism comprises at least a wheel operatively connected to the power source and located above the lid, and an elongate drive stub eccentrically fixed on the wheel.

Claim 3 The decorative display according to claim 1, further characterized in that the stopper member is provided with a first recessed portion on the upper central face thereof, and a second recessed portion on the lower central face thereof.

Claim 4 A decorative display comprising:

- a) a support base having at least one support extending therefrom;
- b) a decorative base member separate from the support base and located on the support base;
- c) a transparent housing located in the decorative base member and having a bottom portion defining a bottom portion opening;
- d) a stopper member fitted with the bottom portion of the transparent housing so as to cover the bottom portion opening;
- e) at least one decoration;
- f) a power source; and
- g) a mechanism for transmitting the power output of the power source to the decoration for imparting a desired movement

thereto;

characterized in that a lid is provided above the stopper; and characterized in that the mechanism comprises at least a first gear operatively connected to the power source and located above the lid; a second gear engageable with the first gear, and a third gear engageable with the first gear.

Claim 5 A decorative display comprising:

a) a support base having at least one support extending therefrom;

b) a decorative base member separate from the support base and located on the support base;

c) a transparent housing located in the decorative base member and having a bottom portion defining a bottom portion opening;

d) a stopper member fitted with the bottom portion of the transparent housing so as to cover the bottom portion opening;

e) at least one decoration;

f) a power source; and

g) a mechanism for transmitting the power output of the power source to the decoration for imparting a desired movement thereto;

characterized in that a lid is provided above the stopper; and characterized in that the mechanism comprises at least a first gear operatively connected to the power source and located above the lid and fastened with a wheel having an elongate